

JEWISH LIFE ON THE PENINSULA

CAMP SABRA

SHABBAT SHALOM

Torah Portion: Matot-Masei Numbers 30:02-36:13

Friday Night

Older Habonim

- On Friday night, Older Habonim lead the final Friday Shabbat Services. Each cabin had the opportunity to lead one or two songs, prayers and creative expressions. During the week at cabin activities in Judaics, they created poems and songs to present at the service. The poems and creative expressions were about their reflections on their years at camp.

Saturday Morning

• Staff

- This Saturday, Staff members from every unit helped lead the service. Throughout the week in their free time, Staff made creative expression and practiced songs to present on Saturday.
- This week's Torah portion was about laws. The laws discussed were the boundaries for the land of Israel, women's inheritance, marriage vows and spoils of war.
- Older Hab campers, Molly and Wolfie accompanied our song leaders during the Sh'ma with their violin and viola. It was very special.

AROUND THE AREAS

AREA: Tripping

The ladies of Ayelet hung out with Elissa, the Tripping Director for an outdoor cooking focus. On the second day of the focus they incorporated Israeli culture by cooking a very popular dish in Israel. They made Shakshouka out of tomato paste, mushrooms, eggs and seasoning. They cooked the dish on a camping stove. Additionally, they cooked pita over a fire pit to dip in the Shakshouka.

AREA: Judaics

Sigal had Almagor, Older Hab, Golan and Sharone visit her. Sharone and Golan made decorated challah covers and played an Israeli card game called Taki. Almagor got creative with food. They made synagogues out of graham crackers and candy. Older Hab was busily planning their creative expressions and song to present at the service on Friday.

VALUE OF THE WEEK: GRATITUDE

This week's value was gratitude. Gratitude was demonstrated in many areas of camp in various ways. At Health & Happiness Mina expressed gratitude through a variety of focuses and cabin activities. When Ayelet came for focuses Mina made gratitude jars. They looked through magazines and cut out images of things they were grateful for. Then they "modge podged" the images on the jars.

This year Shauna, the drama director is putting on the play Peter Pan. Campers from all units tried out for the play. To learn their lines, they took the initiative to practice during rest hour. The group would get together to rehearse to make sure everyone knew their lines and would be prepared for the show. The play will be uploaded for all to see at a later date!

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR CAMPERS IN YOUR NEXT LETTER

- What songs did you sing during Shabbat Services?
- What did you do with your unit for Saturday afternoon rotations?
- What was your favorite act of the talent show?
