

JEWISH LIFE ON THE PENINSULA

CAMP SABRA

SHABBAT SHALOM

Torah Portion: Korach - Numbers 16.1-18.32

Friday Night

- Older Habonim
 - On Friday night, Older Hab led the last Friday night services of the first session. Each cabin had the opportunity to perform a song or prayer during the service. The service ended with a camp rendition of "Home" by Edward Sharpe and Magnetic Zeros.
 - This week's Torah portion spoke about the story of Korach, who disliked Moses's ideas and attempted to overthrow him. From this story, we learned the importance of being open-minded to new ideas and hearing out each individual's thoughts.

Saturday Morning

- Sharone and Golan
 - On Saturday, Sharone & Golan helped lead services. There was a record-high amount of creative expressions as everyone wanted to take-part in the last service! A camp rendition of "Love Story" by Taylor Swift was performed. The service concluded with the poem "I am a camper" read by Camp Director Kim Sloan and Executive Director Terri Grossman.

AROUND THE AREAS

AREA: Tarbut

This week in Tarbut, we focused on the value of gratitude and how it plays a role in Jewish life. During focuses, campers wrote personalized notes to the kitchen and cleaning staff to show their appreciation for everything they do to help make camp a special place. They also baked Kadorei Shokolad, a sweet chocolate treat similar to a cake pop! It is as iconic as falafel in Israel but often only made inside the home. Campers decorated the desserts with sprinkles and handed them to peers as a gesture of gratitude.

VALUE OF THE WEEK: SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

This week at Sabra, we focused on the value: social responsibility. Social responsibility is "an individual's obligation to work and cooperate with other individuals and organizations for the benefit of the community that will inherit the world that individual leaves behind." During flagpole, campers provided examples of how they are socially responsible in their daily lives. One of the most common examples brought up by campers was cleaning up after ourselves, as it affects the entire table and, at camp, we work together as a community.

Special Events: Maccabia

Next week, Camp Sabra will be hosting its annual Maccabia games, otherwise known as Color Wars! The first Maccabia Games, otherwise known as the "Jewish Olympics" were first held in 1932. It's an international Jewish and Israeli multi-sport event held quadrennially in Israel. At camp, campers are divided into teams of four and compete in activities such as sporting events, relay races, and dance competitions to show which team has the most spirit!

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR CAMPERS IN YOUR NEXT LETTER

- What's your favorite dance at Shabbat players?
- What was the Saturday night all camp program?
- What is your favorite song to hear during Shabbat players?
- What are you looking forward during the last week of camp?
