Week of June 17-24, 2018: First Session

ALL CAMP PROGRAM - Talent Show!

Campers got the chance to showcase their skills in front of everyone in the Dining Hall!

SHABBAT!

The 2nd Shabbat of the summer was lead by Ayelet on Friday night and Almagor on Saturday morning.

GOLAN – The boys of Golan competed in challenges against their staff in “Beat the Counselor,” and participated in a “Pokemon GO” Scavenger Hunt.

SHARONE – Sharonies put their baking and teamwork skills to the test during their “Cupcake Wars” evening activity.

AYELET - The girls of Ayelet cooked foil packs over an open fire and spent the night under the stars with the whole unit during their overnight!

ALMAGOR

Almagor campers worked together to create, write and perform skits in front of their unit during “Steven Spielberg Night.”

HABONIM - Older Hab explored the wildlife of Arkansas, while Younger Hab floated down the Current River during their respective trips!

MASADA 18!

Land Activity Spotlight - Ropes!

This week at Ropes, the campers learned about Evolution while climbing. They then put their teamwork skills to the test while completing obstacles during the "Amazing Race" Focus.

Water Activity Spotlight - Swim Dock!

This week at the Swim Dock, the kids put their skills to the test in several challenges during the “Survival of the Fittest,” and Olympics. They then worked together to build rafts in the Raft Building focus.

Judaics Spotlight

This week's value was "Hakarat Ha Tov," or Gratitude. Here are all of the campers who were recognized by staff and other campers for courageous acts on Saturday Night!

This week at Judaics, the kids worked on Calligraphy and writing their Hebrew names with a feather pen from a kosher animal, and learned how a torah scroll is made!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Emma Barg and Michael Parsow have been coming to camp for 11 and 23 years respectively, and they are both so happy to be back as two of your Hydration Directors! Emma is from St Louis, and Michael is from Omaha, Nebraska. Emma loves to be able to act silly and have fun with old and new friends, and Michael is excited to get into Sabra shape and hang out with all of the campers.
